

ATLANTA LEADERS' ROUNDTABLE

JUNE 3, 2010

John C. Maxwell
Host

For many years, I have had the joy of speaking before large audiences. The further I get on the leadership journey, I'm increasingly convinced that the intimacy and openness of the 'roundtable' format is a unique value for top leaders. Not only is there the opportunity to learn from leaders living out their leadership in the daily arena, but there is also the opportunity to make new friends and come away refreshed and encouraged.

Joining me as facilitators will be two wonderful friends and world-class leaders:

Ed Bastian
CEO/President of Delta/
Northwest Air Lines

Dave Anderson
CEO/President of Learn to Lead, one of the nation's top leadership development firms
