

Dave "Mr. Accountability" Anderson is a leading international speaker and author on personal and corporate performance improvement. After an extensive career in the automotive retail business Dave, along with his wife Rhonda, began LearnToLead - entering its third decade - with the goal to help individuals and organizations reach their personal and corporate potential.

The author of 15 books (his 16th, Elevate Your Excellence: The Power of Doing Ordinary Things Extraordinarily Well, upcoming in 2024) and host of the wildly popular podcast, "The Game Changer Life," Dave's no-nonsense messages impact readers and listeners in over 174 countries. Dave has spoken in twenty one countries and presents 100+ times annually to a wide array of businesses, athletic teams, and nonprofits.

His immediately applicable messages, energized and dynamic presentation style, and unmatched content positively focus, equip, and inspire teams to do better - and the principles he shares resonate with audiences from a broad spectrum of industries.

His direct, often humorous, and somewhat politically incorrect approach has earned him the nickname, "Mr. Accountability," and his in-the-trenches background of starting and running world-class businesses, coupled with his relatable non-academic approach creates unmatched connection that resonates with his audiences and moves them to action.

Dave and Rhonda are also co-founders of Matthew 25:35 Foundation, which helps feed, clothe, and house under-resourced people worldwide. In his personal time Dave enjoys the martial arts and holds a second degree black belt in karate. He has been married over three decades to Rhonda, and enjoys life as a grandpa immensely.

Holding people accountable is uncomfortable. What's worse is having people fail because you won't coach, confront, or correct them.

Accountability is something you do for someone, not to someone.
